

Have you attended A&E seeking treatment for a flare up of your persistent pain?

Would you like to take part in a study exploring your reasons for and experiences of attending A&E for help with your persistent pain?

Who can take part?

- ⇒ Adults aged 18 and over
- ⇒ Anyone living with persistent pain for more than 3 months
- ⇒ Attended A&E in the last 5 years for a flare-up of persistent pain (non-cancer related)

What will you need to do?

Attend one online interview for 30 to 45 minutes and talk about your experience of attending A&E for your persistent pain treatment

Researcher's contact details:

Eshita Shah sejkesh@ucl.ac.uk

Participation in this study is completely voluntary. You may withdraw at any time without any consequences.

For more information and to take part, scan the QR code below

